

My Oikos Map

Name _____

Date _____

Oikos is the New Testament word for household — the people God has already placed around you. Write your name in the centre, then add names in each circle: people you see regularly who do not yet follow Jesus, or who need encouragement. Aim for at least five.

Also think about: teammates, gym, church, online friends, the barista, the parents at pickup, the people you text most.

1 • Pray

Pray for each name, every day, for an open door.

2 • Care

Show up, serve a need, make space to listen.

3 • Share

Tell your story and the good news when a door opens.

4 • Disciple

Read Scripture together and help them reach their oikos.

My Five

Start date _____

Prayer partner _____

Choose five names from your map. Pray for them daily, and tick each step as you take it. The goal is not speed — it is faithfulness.

Pray (2 Corinthians 4:4)

Ask God to open their eyes to the light of the Gospel, soften their heart, and send someone to them — maybe you.

Share (1 Peter 3:15)

Your story in three minutes: life before Jesus, how you met Him, what is different now. Then invite them.

Care (Matthew 5:16)

A meal, a message, help with a move, an honest "how are you really?" Love that shows up opens doors.

Disciple (2 Timothy 2:2)

Read a Gospel story together each week. Ask: what does this show about God? About people? What will I do?

"Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

Matthew 9:38 (NIV)
